About JTEC Racing & Fun

JTEC provides the perfect place to go and race your RC till your heart's content. They have everything you need to make your car look like a winner. Should you have a break down, JTEC has everything needed to get your car back up and running in no time. While you wait, you can visit the snack bar or even the arcade. To make your experience one of a kind, you can race your car...for money! You can get more than just a car. They sell model airplanes too! They also have a section specifically for hobbies. Anything that you're interested in- you can find it at JTEC!
