

Parent n' Pal Weekend
July 30 to Aug. 1

BEWARE
of
THE GIANT REPTILES!!!

Parent & Pal Weekend

in 2010 is exploring the pre-historic theme at Camp Robert Drake on the last weekend of July. Parent n' Pal is focused on an adult/youth partnership as campers will enjoy "the Age of the Dinosaur" in pairs throughout Camp Drake. Parent/son combinations will be able to choose their own itinerary for events. Two evening campfires bring nighttime fellowship, as well as an evening swimming option on Saturday. Campers can bring their own equipment, but tents and cots will be provided, if needed. The cost is $60.00 per pair and includes meals with a special Saturday picnic.

Parent & Pal Weekend provides a campful of activities including boating, swimming, handicrafts, and shooting sports. The Parent and Pal experience allows each Cub Scout in attendance with a more personal experience with his parents, as well as the camp staff. Since the attendance at this event is smaller, the participants are able to receive additional attention at program activities and easy access to all events.
