

EMERALD HONOR

2010 Camp Promotion and Service Award

Colorful “going green” emblems will be available for youth and adult leaders who assist in the promotion, maintenance, and development of Camp Robert Drake. The Illini Lodge Service Corps has adopted a special recognition known as the Emerald Honor for Cub Scouts, Boys Scouts, Venturers, and leaders that help improve Camp Drake grounds and facilities in 2010. By participating in three camp-related tasks, every youth and leader can earn a special Emerald Honor patch. To qualify, the applicant must participate in each of the three categories. Please have a member of the Illini Lodge Service Corps initial the completed tasks.

- 1) Attend a Camp Drake Tool Time Work Day
- 2) Participate in a unit led “summer camp promotional night” for youth and parents
- 3) Help provide service to Camp Drake through one of the selected options
